

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY

The superintendent, as chief executive officer (CEO), is accountable to the Board of Trustees, which expects the CEO to be the education leader of Hart ISD. The CEO works closely with the Board of Trustees to develop and implement policies and programs designed to carry out the district's mission.

In concert with the staff, students, and the community, the Board of Trustees has identified certain characteristics and qualifications as highly desirable in a CEO:

- An effective communicator with superior interpersonal skills who is approachable, friendly, and has a sense of humor
- Has a reputation for being actively involved in district activities and visible throughout the community
- A motivational leader who is attentive to staff morale with a proven ability in building an effective management team
- Has a background in curriculum and instruction and school financial management
- Relies on facts to make tough decisions in a timely way and then consistently supports those decisions
- An experienced campus administrator who is a positive role model and sets high performance standards through personal example
- Able to work in partnership with the Board of Trustees and build a climate of candor, mutual trust, and cooperation
- An honest person with high moral standards and personal ethics

Interested applicants must apply online at www.tasb.org/ess

No contact should be made with the school district.
