

Goose Creek CISD Hires Superintendent/CEO

On May 28, the Goose Creek CISD Board of Trustees voted to hire Dr. Toby York as superintendent/CEO. He has served Texas public schools 33 years. York began his career as a teacher and coach at Temple ISD. He also served Cameron ISD as athletic director and head football coach and Conroe ISD as high school assistant principal and athletic coordinator and head football coach. He moved to New Caney ISD in 1996 to fill the position of high school principal. He went on to serve the district as associate superintendent for curriculum and instruction. In 2001, he began his work in Goose Creek CISD. He has held several positions in the district, including executive director of school administration, assistant superintendent, and deputy superintendent. Most recently, he has served Goose Creek CISD as interim superintendent.
