

Celebrating 100 Years of Exemplary Education

Graphic Created by Jeremy Stefek

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY

The superintendent, as chief executive officer (CEO), is accountable to the Board of Trustees, which expects the CEO to be the educational leader of Thrall ISD. The CEO works closely with the Board of Trustees to develop and implement policies and programs designed to carry out the district's mission.

In concert with the staff, students, and the community, the Board of Trustees has identified certain characteristics and qualifications as highly desirable in a CEO:

- Confident, optimistic leader with a proven record of building successful teams, improving academic performance, and working effectively with different groups
- An experienced educator with a background in teaching and campus administration. Experience as either a superintendent or assistant superintendent is preferred.
- An effective communicator with a sense of humor who is approachable and open; a “people” person
- Has a reputation for being actively involved in district activities and visible throughout the community
- Has a background in curriculum and instruction and school financial management
- Able to work in partnership with the Board of Trustees and build a climate of candor, mutual trust, and cooperation.
- An honest person with high moral standards and personal ethics
- Knowledgeable of the bond process; experience passing bonds preferred
- Committed to Thrall ISD and building long term stability for the district

Interested applicants must apply online at www.tasb.org/ess

No contact should be made with the school district.

Direct questions to: TASB Executive Search Services

800-580-8272; Fax 512-467-3658

E-mail: executive.search@tasb.org

