

Marathon ISD Hires Superintendent/Principal

On August 3, the Marathon ISD Board of Trustees unanimously voted to hire Neal Harrison as superintendent/principal. He has served Texas public schools for 17 years, most recently as superintendent/CEO at Tioga ISD. Previously, he worked at Collinsville ISD, where he served for 10 years as elementary school principal and two years as high school principal. He also was a high school/elementary principal at Milford ISD. Harrison began his career in education in 1963, serving parochial schools. He was teacher/coach at St Edward's High School, Austin; athletic director and teacher/coach at St. Paul's Academy, Shiner; assistant principal and teacher/coach at Jesuit College Preparatory, Dallas; and director of development at Ursuline Academy, Dallas. Harrison reported to the district August 4.
