

San Diego ISD Hires Superintendent/CEO

On November 9, the San Diego ISD Board of Trustees voted to hire Ignacio Salinas as superintendent/CEO. He has served public education for 28 years, most recently at Benavides ISD as superintendent/CEO. Salinas began his career in 1981 as a high school teacher at San Diego ISD. He worked at the district for 12 years, serving as junior high school principal, elementary school principal, and the district site-based decision-making facilitator. In 1993, he moved to Austin to join the Texas State Teachers Association. He served the association as vice president from 1993 to 1997 and as president from 1997 to 2003. He also was a member of the Texas House of Representatives from 1999 to 2003. He reported to the district November 10.
