Bio of Dr. Jayme Mathias

July 1, 2019

Dr. Jayme Mathias was elected to the Austin ISD Board of Trustees in November 2012 and re-elected in November 2016. He was elected Secretary by his fellow trustees in November 2012, January 2015, and June 2018. He currently serves on the Joint Subcommittees and the Regional Affordability Committee, both of which are comprised of representatives of the Austin ISD, the City of Austin, and Travis County.

A product of and firm believer in public education, he spent the first 13 years of his education in public schools before earning two undergraduate degrees, four graduate degrees and his doctorate in philosophy.

A 20-year resident of Austin, Dr. Mathias is a certified instructor of secondary foreign languages and taught all levels of high school Spanish—including AP Spanish Language & AP Spanish Literature—before going on to teach at the graduate and doctoral levels. He led a local high school community, as well as Austin's largest Spanish-speaking faith community. Dr. Mathias presently serves as pastor of Holy Family Catholic Church, an inclusive community in the Independent Catholic tradition.

Dr. Mathias' passion for education spurred him to co-found three learning centers in East Austin, including La FUENTE Learning Center, which has hosted the Austin ISD's DELTA program since 2003.

Since 2017, he has served as Executive Director of the Mexican American School Boards Association and as a Steering Committee Member of the NSBA's Council of Urban Boards of Education.

A champion of LGBTQ issues, Dr. Mathias is married to Luyao "Anthony" Tang.
