ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: _____

Myrna Guidry has been a successful attorney in Houston for 22 years. She is highly respected by Judges, her fellow family law colleagues and all of the young attorneys she generously mentor. Myrna has received several honors and accolades for her accomplishments in both Family Law and her Mediation practice.

After fifteen years of practicing law, Mediation was added to her repertoire of legal endeavors. Myrna truly enjoys the practice of Mediation stating, "I am overjoyed to utilize my skills to facilitate settlement between disputing parties, which prevents a protracted legal battle in the Courts." Her passion and proficiency in Mediation were the catalyst for receiving an offer for an Adjunct Law Professor position to teach Mediation at Thurgood Marshall School of Law in the fall of 2019. This is one of her true labors of love.

Another one of her labors of love is her position as Trustee on the Board of Education of the Houston Independent School District. Myrna was appointed to the Board of Education by unanimous vote in December 2020, filling the vacant District IX seat. She was later elected to the Board for a four year term in 2021. She relishes this awesome opportunity to assist in the policy making for a better and brighter future for Houston's young scholars.

In addition to her professional work, Guidry devotes time volunteering with civic and charitable organizations, including Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc; Houston Volunteer Lawyers and the Star of Hope with Miles Ministry.
