Kristen Davison Malone was born and raised in Fort Bend County and she and her husband have chosen to continue that legacy with her own family. While Kristen has always respected education, it was when her eldest child was approaching kindergarten that she refocused her attention to her local neighborhood school. Quickly, Kristen began to see some of the complicated problems her school leaders faced. As many friends and neighbors considered private schools or relocation to other neighborhoods with "better schools", Kristen felt a renewed commitment to her belief that everyone should have access to a great public school education. She now serves as the FBISD board president and her experience in business and volunteerism have prepared her to succeed in serving as a TASB trustee.
